Glenn L. Bricker, 24, Is Killed In Early Morning Accident On Hanover St.

(Photo on Page 3)

Glenn L. Bricker, 221 Chambersburg St., was fatally injured this morning at 2:55 o'clock in an auto accident on Hanover St. Today was his 24th birthday.

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said a fractured skull caused death.

Bricker was a passenger in the car of John F. "Nick" Jones, 52, of 256 S. Washington St., who was injured in the accident.

Gettysburg Policemen Raymond Menges and Russell Potter Jr. said Bricker was dead on their arrival at the scene a few minutes after the accident in front of the Crouse Farm Supply, 200 Hanover St.

JONES COLLAPSES

The ambulance crew, arriving at the scene simultaneously with the police, radioed for Dr. Crist. Police said Bricker had a deep laceration of the scalp, from the front to the back of the head.

Jones, for a number of years a part-time policeman here, appeared at that moment to be uninjured in the crash. He had phoned for police and the ambulance immediately after the accident. He was seated in the back of the police car giving details of the incident to Officer Menges when he suddenly collapsed. He was removed to the Warner Hospital by the ambulance. Physicians told the officers there appeared to be internal bleeding.

SWERVED TO AVOID CAR

Before becoming unconscious, Jones had told Officer Menges that he and Bricker were returning from Hanover when a car going east on Hanover St. "came toward" Jones' auto. Jones swerved to the north and his car struck the right rear of a 1958 flat body truck owned by Crouse Farm Supply parked along the curb at the business establishment.

Jones underwent an operation for a ruptured liver at the hospital this morning.

The officers listed Jones' 1963 Mercury as a total loss. No immediate estimate of damage was listed for the truck, but police said the rear springs were broken and the rear wheels were "driven forward" by the impact.

230 U.S. And Vietnamese Planes Bombard Commies' Stronghold Near Cambodia

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — An armada of 230 U.S. and South Vietnamese planes bombed a Communist stronghold near the Cambodian border "from dawn to dusk" today in the biggest air raid of the Viet Nam war.

U.S. Army, Air Force and Marine aircraft based in Viet Nam were joined by Navy planes from the carriers Coral Sea and Midway and Skyraider fighter-bombers of the South Vietnamese air force.

JUNGLE REGION

It was the first time Navy planes had gone into action against targets inside South Viet Nam. Previous Navy raids have been made on North Viet Nam.

A U.S. spokesman said the target was a tangled jungle region nearly 2 miles wide by 3 1/2 miles long in Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon. "It was a maze of blotchy woods, with Viet Cong gardens and numerous trails visible," he said.

U.S. Air Force and Vietnamese Skyraiders began the bombing attack at dawn.

SIX EXPLOSIONS

By late afternoon a huge wall of smoke and fire obscured the Cambodian border. There had been six secondary explosions, presumably from Viet Cong ammunition caches.

U.S. spokesmen said ground fire was "surprisingly light considering that it is a dangerous area." Two Navy planes received one bullet hole each.

A spokesman said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, had called for a "maximum effort" against the target, which lies in the Communist "C" zone.

"It appeared to be one of the more lucrative places we have been in," he said. (Continued on Page 4)

Historic Meals Farm Is Transferred To National Park Service Wednesday

The historic Meals farm, over which Union and Confederate troops fought fiercely on July 1, 1863, is now a part of the Gettysburg National Military Park.

Acquisition of the historic 105 acres of land took place on Wednesday, the centennial of Lincoln's assassination, through the efforts of the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association in collaboration with the National Park Service and the Adams Realty Company, owners of the historic farm.

The proceedings culminated five years effort of the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association, a nonprofit corporation organized in 1959 by a group of Civil War buffs attending the summer Civil War Study Group conducted by Gettysburg College.

BOUGHT FOR $175,000

The historic land was purchased in 1960 for $175,000, to be paid over a two-year period as funds were raised through public subscription, after five lots were sold along the Mummasburg Rd. and along which highway front of the farm, the owners had installed water and sewer facilities capable of taking care of the entire contemplated housing development.

At the time, the preservation association had also contracted to buy the 55-acre Wolf farm, in the historic Round Top - Devils Den area, which purchase was subsequently accomplished at a cost of $20,000. The preservation association, following payment for the $50,000 Wolf property and its transfer to the United States of America.

SEMINARY TO CHANGE NAME

The Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary is asking the Adams County court to approve changes in its charter as a corporation.

One of the changes would make the corporation name the "Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg," instead of the Theological Seminary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States or the United Lutheran Church in America.

Purpose of the seminary will be "to prepare students for the ordained ministry, especially of the Lutheran Church; to prepare men and women for Christian education, missionary service, parish work and such other areas as may be needed; to aid the theological preparation of the laity for Christian responsibility, to encourage and assist in the continuing education of pastors and to maintain a program of graduate study."

The bylaws note that "the program of the seminary shall be in harmony with the confession of faith of the Lutheran Church in America."

Thirty-four directors are listed on the petition filed in the probate court's office. Among them are Dr. Paul L. Reaser, 650 Sunset Ave., pastor of St. James Lutheran Church here; Dr. C. Arnold Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, and L. S. Long, Gettysburg R. 6.

STEAL $32, HANDBAG

Mrs. William Gallagher, 453 W. Middle St., reported to borough police this morning that her handbag containing $32 in cash was stolen Saturday evening while she was in Martin's Shoe Store.

States of America, made payments on its purchase contract of the historic Meals farm in the aggregate of $67,000, derived almost entirely from contributions made in the All-States Milk Wagon at Rosensteel's National Museum and Electric Map, the sale of deeds for one square foot of land and donations by school children from all over the county.

"PARADE" AIDED Public subscriptions were vastly stimulated by the enterprise of "Parade" magazine, which conducted various promotions netting the preservation association in the neighborhood of $80,000.

The preservation association several times found itself in default under the purchase contract. (Continued on Page 4)

Rev. Marshall spoke on "The Wounds of Christ." He said, "His head was wounded because the people did not want His thoughts of love; His face was much marred because they could not stand to look at the purity and compassion there; His back was scourged because it was meant to carry the load of humanity; His hands were nailed to the crossbeam because they worked for us; and His feet were nailed because the people did not want to be led by them. People are very much the same as in Jesus' day and when He gets close to us we start rebelling against Him. During Lent we come face to face with ourselves. We fail to see our fellowman in the best light but look on ourselves with lenience. We should try to lead lives that will reflect God in us. When we criticize others we are really pointing out weaknesses that we have within ourselves." He conducted the opening and closing devotions.

Miss Lois Kadel played "The Old Rugged Cross" as a prelude and accompanied the singing of hymns. There were 30 in attendance.

Guests at the luncheon which preceded the service were Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Albert Blackburn, Bedford, a former Y board member and chairman of its public affairs committee. Mrs. Guyon E. Following a report by Glenn Weishaar, chairman of the ambulance board, the department voted its thanks to Clarence Turner for work performed on the ambulance free of charge.

Weishaar as chairman of a special committee recommended that the company accept an offer by the Salvation Army to place a Salvation Army canteen truck here, with the firemen responsible for its operation during any emergency, primarily those in the county. He said the canteen truck "is excellent, it contains a refrigerator, grill, stove, hot and cold water, a coffee maker, everything needed to make meals in the field. The Salvation Army would pay for food used and maintenance of the truck. We would have to supply a site to house the vehicle, a crew of three or four to see to the truck's maintenance and crews to man it when in use." The committee was asked to find a place where the canteen truck could be housed prior to final decision by the department on whether it will accept responsibility for the vehicle.

Thomas Cole reported on plans to place at least two trunk phone lines in the Quick Call center for the "emergency" phone.

In order to bring additional trunk lines into the phone, it will be necessary to change the number, Cole said. The change will take place July 1, when the 334-1313 number will change to 334-6767.

He reported that Hammers will return home from the hospital Friday and that member Robert Shealer, injured in a recent fall at the sewage disposal plant, has returned home from the hospital. The resignation of Glenn Raf-fensperger from the property committee was reported by Ohler, who appointed Thomas Adams to that post.

RETAIL CLINIC OPENS SESSION IN BIGLERVILLE

Both newspaper and radio advertising can bring the customer to the roadside fruit stand but after that it is up to the owner to sell, according to statements at a Retail Marketing Clinic held Tuesday evening in Biglerville High School under sponsorship of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association. The second session will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the same site.

Methods of advertising were discussed by all of the speakers: Harold Hoecker, extension economist from the University of Maryland; Charles Porter, extension economist from Pennsylvania State University, and a panel comprised of Harry Black, Thurmont; Everitt Weiser, York Springs R. D.; Wadsworth Whittier, Shermansdale, and James Brinton, Hanover R. D., and moderated by Larry Yeager, area extension marketing specialist.

DISCUSSES ADVERTISING

All were agreed that "appealing" road signs are the major factor in getting the customer to stop at the stands.

Newspaper and radio advertising, Porter, held, is effective, "but to be used effectively you must consider where you are located and what you have to sell." His talk was entitled "Making Advertising Count."

Hoecker said: "A good marketing operation is based on creative thinking. You must give your market individuality. You must sell yourself. Too many are operating by tradition. Freshness and quality of the fruit offered for sale are the first consideration. A second consideration is careful preparation for eye appeal."

HEAR PRACTICAL TIPS

James Brinton, Hanover R. D. fruitgrower and roadside stand operator, said: "The old saying, 'It pays to advertise,' is correct." Brinton said he uses radio and newspaper advertising "all the time," varying the appeal to different age groups. To obtain easy identification for his stand he has a six-foot, three-dimensional apple atop it. He noted that he "likes the flexibility of radio spot announcements."

Harry Black, Thurmont stand operator, commented: "I try to catch the tourist on his way to Gettysburg." He said a quarter peck package of apples is his best seller. Families like the size for "eating right away" and also buy a number to send to friends and relatives.

Everitt Weiser said that a basket which can also be used as a waste basket in which he sells fruit has proved attractive and "leads to many sales." Wadsworth Whittier, Shermansdale, said: "You must make your customer feel wanted," and added that "little printed recipes," which he puts in the bag with each sale, "have brought sales from far away, with people writing for those recipes that make such good apple crisp, or whatever the recipe might have been."

Next Tuesday Larry Yeager will speak on an Ohio case study on roadside market customers. Carl Haeseler of Pennsylvania State University will speak on "Small Fruit Growing Recommendations" and Delmar K. Myers, director

"ANTIQUES"

I get a special kind of thrill . . . whenever I chance to see . . . an object that speaks the past . . . or ancient history . . . something from out antiquity . . . that tells a mellow story . . . of life and death and broken dreams . . . or love in all its glory . . . I study antiques carefully . . . and marvel how they're made . . . while wondering from whence they came . . . and just what part they played . . . if aged things could only talk . . . so much would they convey . . . revealing secrets never told . . . or lost along the way . . . but in a larger sense it seems . . . that lifeless objects bring . . . the hidden glow of yesterday . . . from time's great covering . . . and so I ponder on antiques . . . when it is opportune . . . for in this way I walk the past . . . till time bursts my balloon.

CORPS HEARS DR. GIFFORD

Treatment for burns and fractures was outlined Tuesday evening by Dr. Roy W. Gifford, surgeon at the Warner Hospital, at the series of instructions being held under sponsorship of the Adams County Ambulance Corps and the state Department of Health at the National Guard Armory on W. Confederate Ave.

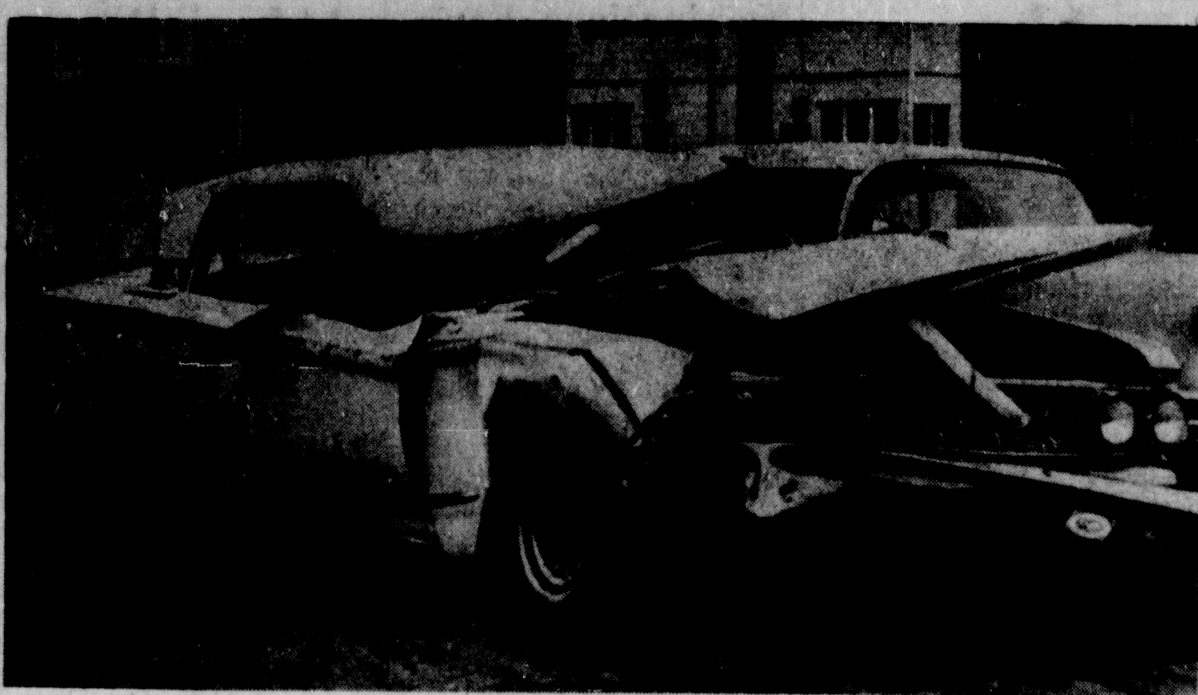

Sixty-eight ambulance drivers, nurses and others attended the session. Dr. Gifford gave details of how to handle patients suffering from various burns and fractures and how to provide such immediate care as may be necessary in transporting the patients by ambulance to the hospital.

Dr. Gifford praised the ambulance corps for their work and said they do not receive sufficient credit for the work they do. The volunteer corpsmen handle about 2,000 ambulance calls a year "donating their time and skill." He commented on the skill in which the drivers have handled the patients in removing them from auto accidents, or home, and transporting them to the hospital.

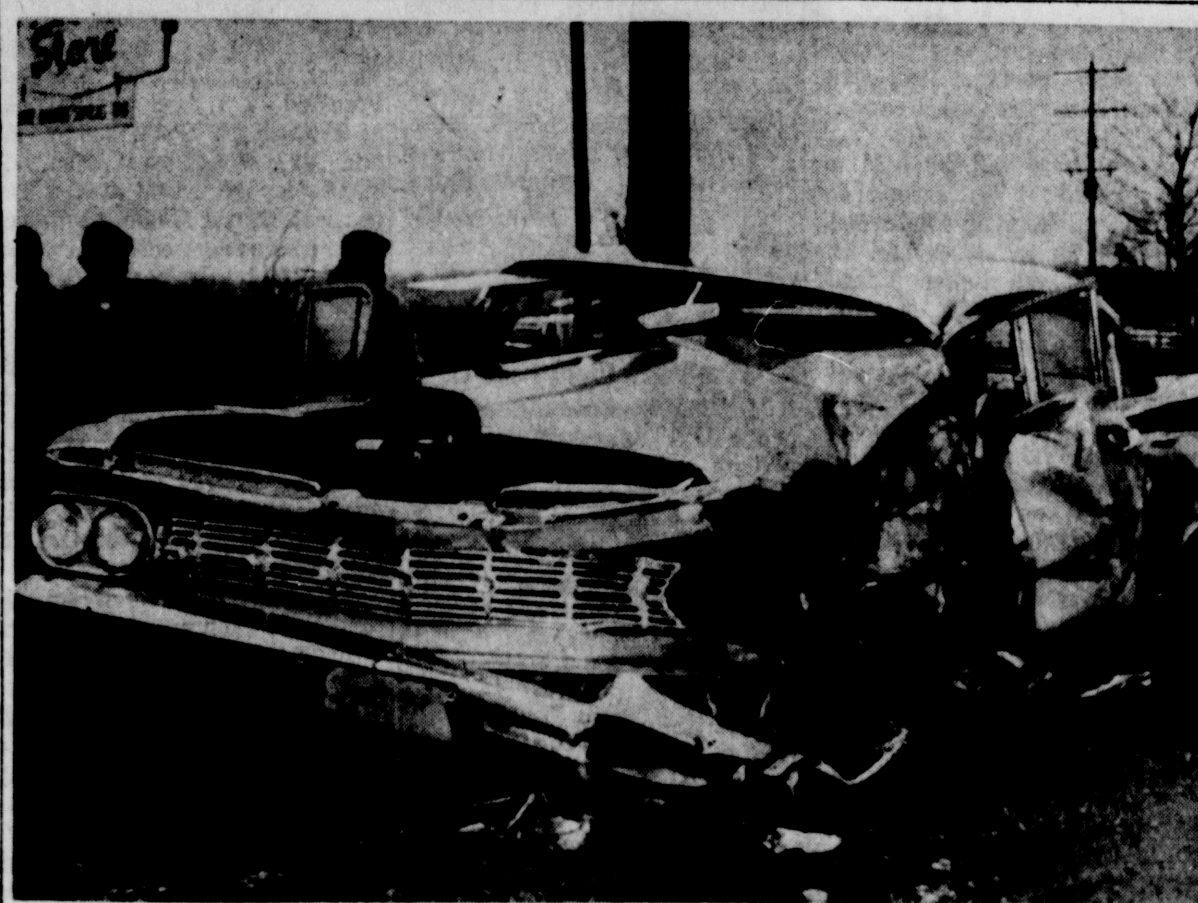

Dr. Gifford was one of a group of physicians speaking at the course which began with 16 weeks of Red Cross first aid instruction. Last week Dr. James H. Hammett, Fairfield, gave instruction in use of oxygen. Next Tuesday Dr. C. Harold Johnson will speak on communicable diseases. The last physician to speak will be Dr. Harrison F. Harbach, who arranged for the appearance of the other physicians. He will have "obstetrics" as the theme on April 27 since a number of county children over the years can claim an ambulance as their birthplace. At the May 4 session state police will talk on the laws pertaining to ambulance operation.

CHILD STUDY GROUP MEETS

"A child's play is a child's work," Mrs. Marguerite Duvall, Pennsylvania State University specialist in child development and family relationships, said Tuesday evening at the first meeting of the child study group of the county extension association in the lower courtroom of the courthouse.

The next meeting of the group will be held April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the extension office at 111 Baltimore St. Mrs. Helen Tunison, extension home economist, said parents of preschool age and early elementary age children are invited to the April 26 session on "Children's Fantasies."

A safe play area, inside and out, an open shelf storage and a variety of materials and interested parents are vital to the development of the child, she added.

Children go through three stages in play, according to the speaker. In infancy, the stage is called "sense-pleasure." The child learns about his own physical self through reaching and stretching. The second stage is "skill-play."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Second Lt. G. Noel Flynn, husband of Mrs. Rebecca (Swisher) Flynn, Baltimore street, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Flynn, also of Baltimore street, arrived Monday evening in Miami, Fla., from Italy.

Lt. Flynn is now confined to a hospital in the former Miami Baltimore hotel for treatment to a slight eye infection. He expects to arrive home in about a week. Lt. Flynn went overseas in August, 1942, and was stationed in England, Africa, Sicily and Italy as a member of a medical corps outfit. He received a battlefield commission as second lieutenant on February 24.

Lt. David C. Houck is now a patient at the Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D.C., after being hospitalized in England for three months.

Wounds which Lieutenant Houck received resulted in the amputation of his right leg above the knee and serious injuries to his right hand. Mrs. Houck received her husband's Purple Heart award several weeks ago. She is now with her husband in Washington.

Lieutenant Houck graduated from Gettysburg college in 1943, was attached to a tank battalion. Mrs. Houck was formerly Miss Marie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Biglerville R.D.

The two teachers and all of the students of the two-room Orrtanna grade school building have sent in their memberships in the Adams County Free Library association, it was announced today. The teachers are Gladys R. Walter and Sarah M. Miller.

The Orrtanna school is the first rural school in the county to report "100 percent membership" in the library association.

The school's record is in addition to the record of nearly 70 individual memberships from Orrtanna community. That list includes several life memberships at $25.

The Burgoon and Yingling cannery, East Railroad street, today is observing the twenty-fifth anniversary of its opening. The owners, J. I. Burgoon and D. E. Yingling, started the business March 28, 1920, and since that time have been canning fruits and vegetables under the trade name of "National Park."

In the 25 years of operation the plant has been successively enlarged until it is now three times its original size with proportionate increase in its operating capacity. In 1920 only tomatoes were canned but later peas, red beets and pears were added to the list of products handled there. The plant now is devoted entirely to the canning of peas and tomatoes.

Mares Sherman, proprietor of Sherman's clothing store on York street, has purchased the Harry Veiner property on York street, now occupied by the Gettysburg Auto Parts store and two second-floor apartments. When Mr. Sherman came to Gettysburg nearly 25 years ago, he clerked in Harry Veiner's store on the site he has now purchased.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jacobs, 46 East Broadway, was a quarantined Wednesday evening by Borough Health Officer Erle R. Deardorff for scarlet fever. The Jacobs' young son, Stephen William, aged six and a half years is ill with the disease. Today marks the twenty-fifth

Today's Talk

BEHIND THE SCENES

If we could but look behind the scenes of a play, and know all the plans and long hours of practice, trials and errors that led to its final success, we would appreciate the more its gift of entertainment and artistic triumph.

If we could but look behind the scenes and note the careful and self-sacrificing efforts that are going on night and day, in laboratories and experimental stations, where scientists are seeking out remedies for a safer and happier life for us all, we would pay greater honor to those who give their lives and strength to humanity as a whole.

If we could look behind the scenes and see the personal struggle of many men and women who smilingly and with great courage face the difficulties that may be theirs, we would be less complaining, more thoughtful toward others, and more inspiring human beings. The human heart is a closed chamber. Only its owner knows what goes on in there, so that to judge another is serious business.

Behind the scenes of human progress are to be found the most inspiring stories in all this world. Little by little they crop out, are recorded and make examples by which we too make take heart and courage, and be among those who have helped to make a happier world. And in all these stories may be found instances of high resolve, undying courage and personal unselfishness, as well as many a day of poverty and defeat. Behind the scenes in Nature may also be found many a striking lesson by which we may all take heart. Think of the trapped animal who gnaws his feet off in order to gain his freedom again, or the little bird, cheerful in the cold, with a song still left in its tiny heart! Everything in nature has a continual struggle on its hands for survival, yet there is a continual rebirth of all her forces. Her life is perpetual. There is a behind-the-scenes to every enactment in life. We need to take note of them. They are all significant!

GOOD WORLD

It's a pretty good world if we'd leave it alone.
It has plenty of beauty and charm of its own.
It has mountains and rivers and meadows at night,
For whatever man counts his especial delight.The fisherman's world? Oh, describe it who can!
It has everything good for the soul of a man:
The silver of water, the green of the trees,
And the calm of a spot where it's restful to be.The thrill of adventure the mountains bestow.
There are beaches of sand where the sea breezes blow.
Whatever man longs for to comfort and cheer,
And gladden his life for a while—it is here!Has man turned his back upon beauty to claim
The glitter of riches, the splendor of fame?
Has the purpose of God he contrived to defeat
In a world that was made for his joy so complete?

anniversary of the opening for operation of what is now the Gettysburg Throwing company, a silk-products processing plant owned and operated by Gettysburg citizens.

The factory was opened originally in 1920 as the Eagle Silk mill, and continued under the Eagle management until 1938 when the Gettysburg company was organized. The mill had been out of operation for a year before the local organization was formed.

Most important work of the throwing company today is the handling of its war contracts. It has been spinning raw silk, nylon and rayon fibers to fill navy, army, War Production Board and United National Relief and Rehabilitation contracts since shortly after the war started.

At Da Nang, 360 miles north of Saigon, a military firing squad publicly executed today a Viet Cong terrorist who tried to bomb a hotel filled with American GIs. Applause rippled through the crowd of 7,000 men, women and children as the young Communist slumped at the stake.

Le Dau, 24, showed no emotion as soldiers bound him to the stake in front of a sandbag parapet on the Da Nang soccer field.

HEAVY GUARD

A heavy military guard ringed the field. Still awaiting execution is Nguyen Van Hai, 27, who drove the getaway motorbike in the bombing of the U.S. Embassy in Saigon.

Hanoi Radio has announced that the Viet Cong will execute an American civilian prisoner, Gustav C. Hertz, if Hai is killed. There was no such threat in the case of Le Dau.

Le Dau walked into the Grand Hotel in Da Nang April 4 with a transistor radio packed with two pounds of plastic explosive under his arm. He had been loitering in the area three previous days and had aroused suspicions of hotel personnel.

Le Dau left the bomb set to explode in 15 minutes in the hotel restaurant and walked out. When it did not explode, he returned and picked up the radio. A waiter followed him out and hailed a policeman.

NEW POLICY BY HOUSE GOP ON TASK FORCES

By DAVE LEHERR
Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republicans have adopted a new policy toward the six special task force committees created by majority Democrats to explore various fields of legislation.

"We will attend all hearings and public meetings of the task forces, but only as observers and at our own expense," House Minority Leader Kenneth B. Lee, R-Sullivan, disclosed today.

"However, we will not take part in any closed door sessions that involve policy making or efforts to formulate a legislative program for the Democrats," he added.

SOME MEETINGS HELD

House Democrats set up the six special task forces several weeks ago to look into areas of taxation, education, transportation, recreation and tourism, health and welfare, and economic development.

House Majority Leader Joseph E. Eilberg, D-Philadelphia, appointed four Democrats and three Republicans to each. But Republicans refused to take part, claiming they felt any legislation involving the people of Pennsylvania should come from the standing committees of the House already established.

Several task forces held meetings without Republicans in attendance. Then suddenly, Republican members began to show up.

Wednesday, for instance, Reps. Joseph W. Isaacs, R-Delaware, and John Stauffer, R-Chester, appeared for the first hearing of the task force on transportation. Lee was there, too.

PLAN EXTRA PATROLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Special state police patrols were on duty in strategic locations across the state today in an effort to guarantee a safe Easter holiday on Pennsylvania highways.

State Police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy said the special patrols would be continued throughout the weekend.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Abraham Lincoln died 100 years ago today at 56 he looked much older, already worn out by four years of civil war. But this wasn't what made him a tragic figure.

He was tormented. In 1858 he made his famous "house divided" speech which opened this way: "If we could first know where we are, and whither we are tending, we could better judge what to do and how to do it."

It was an insight into the life-long division within himself about slavery and the Negro and a forecast of his own dilemma when he became president.

WORST CALAMITY
Between his election in 1860 and the time he took the oath of office on March 4, 1861, seven Southern slave states had seceded from the Union, splitting it.

This was the worst calamity any president ever inherited.

Lincoln, a moderate and conservative man, felt his first obligation was to pull the Union together. The problem was how. And he moved slowly. He stated his dilemma in a letter to Horace Greeley in 1862:

"My paramount object in this struggle is to save the Union, and is not either to save slavery or to destroy slavery. If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if I could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it."

A JOKE, OR WORSE

But the Union wasn't being saved. The war went on. He gradually moved toward the Emancipation Proclamation which he issued Jan. 1.

As an effective document it was a joke, or worse. All it did was say that all slaves in the Confederate states where Union forces had not yet won control should be free. That didn't give them much freedom.

But it didn't say anything about freeing them in the loyal slave states. Later Lincoln worked hard to get approval of the Constitution's 13th Amendment abolishing slavery but he was dead before it was approved.

(Much earlier he had backed a constitutional amendment — which didn't get approved — guaranteeing the federal government would never interfere with slavery.)

All this showed the division within Lincoln on how to win the war. But his deeper internal division on the Negro problem existed long before. These were some of his positions before he became president.

He abhorred suppression of the Negroes but he was against letting them vote. He wanted slavery abolished in the District of Columbia but he also wanted fugitive slaves escaping into the district sent back to their masters.

DENOUNCED SLAVERY

He wanted all men to have the chance to rise economically but he didn't consider Negroes the social equals of white men. He denounced the injustice of slavery but, while not advocating its abolition, he opposed its extension beyond the slave states.

Lincoln was not the only president who suffered from such contradictions. Thomas Jefferson had them, too.

At one time, Jefferson had 100 to 200 slaves whose work on his broad acres made it possible for him to read 18th century philosophy, fight for freedom from Britain and write the Declaration of Independence.

Although he didn't consider Negroes the social and political equals of white men, the opening paragraph of the Declaration of Independence said, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

FREED 3 SLAVES

(The declaration, as Jefferson wrote it, contained a section condemning Britain for its slave trade but Congress scratched that out.)

Nevertheless, when he became president years later, Jefferson got Congress to pass a law forbidding the African slave trade from this country.

He said once about slavery: "I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just." At the time of his death he had perhaps less than 100 slaves but he freed only three.

A famous biographer of Jefferson explained why: The three who were freed were artisans and could make a living on their own; Jefferson was reluctant to free his slaves who, he felt, couldn't make their own way.

4 APPOINTED TO "POVERTY WAR" POSTS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton has announced four appointments to state posts created to administer the federal anti-poverty and Appalachian programs in Pennsylvania.

was appointed regional director for the anti-poverty program in charge of the 12-county Western Pennsylvania district. Kline a graduate in education from California State College, will be headquartered in Pittsburgh.

Scranton also named these assistant coordinators:

Maurice Kelsey of Pittsburgh, for the Western district to serve under Kline.

Kelsey resigned as probation officer of the Allegheny County Juvenile Court to accept his new job, Scranton said.

Humphrey Predicts New Wage Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says he is confident the Johnson administration will seek to increase the federal minimum wage from its present level of $1.25 per hour.

"I am quite confident there will be an adjustment and that it will be upward," Humphrey said Tuesday in a speech to AFL-CIO officials.

Labor leaders have been demanding that the minimum wage be lifted to $2 an hour, but a spokesman for the AFL-CIO indicated the labor federation would be satisfied with an increase to $1.50 an hour.

Ford, 33, was selected outstanding citizen of the year by the Levittown Junior Chamber of Commerce for his work as program director of the Bristol Twp. Community Center.

A former professional football player, he played several years as a back with the Cleveland Browns and the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League.

CBS HAS MOST NEW MATERIAL FOR SUMMER

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Summer television viewing on the three networks will have its usual second-hand look, with about four out of every five programs moving into reruns.
By actual count, 74 evening programs out of 98 are scheduled to be showing repeats, some of which already have been used for previous summer reruns.
NBC does not have a single new program on its hot-weather schedule.
ABC has four: "Peyton Place" twice a week, "Shindig," "The King Family" and "The Lawrence Welk Show."
SOAP IN EVENING
CBS' summer schedule contains the most new material — eight shows. Four are game or panel shows — "What's My Line?" "To Tell the Truth," "Password" and "Celebrity Game."

It will launch an evening spin-off of its top-rated, daytime soap opera, "As the World Turns," on a twice-a-week basis. CBS also will have a new edition of the perennial "Talent Scouts" in Red Skelton's Tuesday night hour and a variety show headed by trumpeter Al Hirt will be in Jackie Gleason's Saturday night spot. "Secret Agent," which already has started, will be continued until fall on Saturdays.
OLD SHOW, TOO
CBS has little information yet on programs which will replace "The Andy Griffith Show" or "Gomer Pyle" for a few months, but both shows will probably be collections of un-did pilot films or perhaps some

Representative Alabama Business Groups Ask For Equal Jobs For Negroes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Twenty-two business groups, including 19 chambers of commerce from throughout Alabama, have called on the state's business leaders to provide equal job opportunities for all citizens — Negro and white.
In a full-page ad in today's editions of the Birmingham Post-Herald, the groups noted that Title VII of the Civil Rights Act goes into effect shortly. The title calls for "nondiscrimination in employment and will call for some adjustments," the groups said.
"While many of our employers have been in compliance with these provisions for some time, we call on business leaders all over the state to provide leadership in this matter," the ad said.
SEEK HARMONY
The groups urged leaders of both races "to improve avenues of communication and understanding. While this has been done successfully in many local communities, we suggest that consideration be given to the establishment of positive new vehicles for communications between the races throughout the state."
Improved communications, the groups noted, will benefit all people and "provide more jobs and greater income, thus raising the standard of living for all of our citizens — both Negro and white."
"OBEY THE LAW"
"We believe in obedience to the law, even though some may question the wisdom of particular laws," the ad continued.
"We deplore equally public demonstrations which violate the law, and the actions of those who take the law into their own hands."
The ad said there are proper procedures to express protest in a lawful manner.
The ad was signed by several influential groups, including the Associated Industries of Alabama, the Alabama State Chamber of Commerce, and the Alabama Bankers Association.

EARLE AVERY DRIVES AT 71 FOR RICH PRIZE

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Earle Avery, at an age when most men are content to don house slippers and let younger folks take over, goes after one of his richest prizes tonight in the $100,000 International Pace at Yonkers Raceway.
The 71-year-old native of New Brunswick, Canada, drives the Clearview Stable's favored Meadow Skipper against seven other top-flight pacers from New Zealand, Australia and the United States in the 1 1/4-mile event.
Traveling at a fast clip and winning the big ones is not new for Avery and the 5-year-old son of Dale Frost-Countess Vivian.
As a 3-year-old Meadow Skipper clipped off one mile in 1:55 1-5 and at one-time shared the Yonkers track record of 1:58 4-5, a clocking made in beating Overtrick, 1964 International winner, in the $163,187 Cane Futurity two seasons ago.
Meadow Skipper has won a total of $355,620 and can pick up another $50,000 tonight.

CELTICS, 76ERS FACE BIG ONE

BOSTON (AP) — The entire season will be wrapped up in one game when the defending champion Boston Celtics meet the upset-minded Philadelphia 76ers in the seventh and final game of the National Basketball Association Eastern Division playoffs tonight at Boston Garden.
The winner will gain a berth in the championship playoffs against the Los Angeles Lakers who won the Western Division title, beating Baltimore four games to two.
Boston has been installed as an eight-point favorite to win on its home court, having beaten the 76ers 10 times at Boston, including three playoff games. The odds-makers have called the shot each time, picking the home team in the other six games.
Coach Dolph Schayes says his Philadelphia team will pull the upset because he's expecting a big effort from Wilt Chamberlain.
Boston has been involved in six series that went down to the wire while winning eight straight division crowns and seven NBA titles. They won all six, including a series against the Syracuse team that included the nucleus of this current Philadelphia entry.

Early Followers Forbidden To Propagate Faith

EDITOR'S NOTE — After the Crucifixion, believers in Christ became an outlaw sect, specifically prohibited from spreading word of His Resurrection, propagating faith in Him or even mentioning His name. Following is the fourth part of a five-part Easter series about that period, dealing with one of the many early trials of the Apostles.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

An unexplained species, these Nazarenes. Raban Gamaliel eyed them perplexedly. They had brazenly flouted a state edict. Yet for all his eludition, he could not come to any clear judgment about them.

Their conduct mystified him. Their hymns, their "holy kisses," their sharing of goods, the much-making over a common gourd of wine, their constant smiles and indiscriminate attachment for one another all seemed harmless enough.

Yet their 12 leaders, arrested and arraigned before the council for the third time of late, were unquestionably lawbreakers. And the dominant clique of the Sanhedrin, in league with Rome, had decided in advance that they must die.

MASTER OF SCHOOL

A lofty-minded teacher, Gamaliel was master of the famed school of Hillel, and the first of the great rabbis to be honored with the title, "rabban," an arch scholar. But his status had waned in the Rome-dominated statecraft.

He saw little hope for these culprits. Not that he held any brief for their bizarre "good news," equating God's awaited ruler with a crucified victim. But he preferred to let their claim fall of its own baselessness.

He sat in silence, his sagacious old eyes wearily disenchanted, as the summary hearing went on. Caiaphas, the high priest, fumed at the prisoners: "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name. Yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring the man's blood upon us."

JAILED TWICE BEFORE

Twice before, since crucifixion of their Galilean inciter, they had been jailed and warned "not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus." Once they had escaped apparently through collusion of cell guards.

And they persisted in their insubordination with unmitigated zeal.

They would not be let off lightly a third time. Lined up before the semicircular balustrade in the stone court chamber, the 12 exchanged stubborn looks and their ringleader, Peter, spoke in his mariner's growl:

"We must obey God, rather than men."

It was sheer insolence. Gamaliel sighed resignedly as indignant exclamations broke out among the lawyers and ruling Sadducees. Caiaphas purpled as lividly as his long embroidered meen. "Marad! Rebellious!"

Opposing his Rome-upheld faction seemed useless. Yet Gama-

Peter said, "We must obey God rather than men."

liel, an inveterate old battler for principle, knew he must try. He counted several fellow Pharisees present who supported his doctrine of moderation, as against the severe school of Shamai.

DAILY ATTENDANCE

He had personally observed the conduct of the accused sect, noticing that its members continued in daily attendance at the Temple. They had not forewarned their ancestral faith, albeit they brought strange admixtures to it.

Many were of the poor, the byonim, dwelling in the dusty passages of the old eastern wall. Others were well off. But by their extraordinary charitable-ness, no Nazarene had an unfilled need.

Yet they certainly had become a disturbance to the prevailing pattern of things. They created popular ferment, engendering reports of miraculous cures and supernatural intercessions. They attracted swarms of the afflicted.

And their numbers grew. At first, at that dumfounding rampage at the Pentecost festival a year or so ago, 3,000 had joined the sect, but many of these were pilgrims, now scattered to many regions.

Yet those who remained had increased until they now numbered 5,000 in Jerusalem alone, a small fragment in a city 20 times that, but with a sizable force in these unstable times.

Already, Rome's troops had stepped in repeatedly to stifle dissidence, often with massive slaughter, and the puppet Sadducees were under strictures to keep down disorders or lose their religious prerogatives.

Under this pressure, the Nazarenes had been bamed as a conspiracy. And now, the hothead Peter went on with his brash effrontery:

"The God of our Fathers raised up Jesus whom you killed by hanging Him on a tree. God exalted Him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit Whom God has given to those who obey Him."

At a signal from a Temple

sagban, a guard slashed his whip across the fisherman's face, ordering silence. "Hosah! Hosah!" A paroxysm of rage seized the council. Gamaliel's pale hand tightened on his staff. He lunged to his feet, rapping his staff on the floor.

"Remove these men!" he commanded. "Return them to the dungeon! Let us reason calmly what must be done." Gamaliel waited, his thoughts racing. Certainly he could not dispute the civil disobedience of these men. Nevertheless, as a liberal Pharisee, he also knew that God's loftiest concepts often sprang from ridiculed nonconformists.

"Men of Israel," he said, "take care what you do with these men."

He hesitated, hemmed around by the glowering faces, by these power-jealous councilors straining to hang on to their shaky offices under the last of Rome. Suddenly he saw their vulnerability. He knew how to beat them. They were afraid.

He nodded imperceptibly to himself. "These days," he went on, "the land trembles with contentions and alarms. The one titled our protector is even now called to account for scattering and slaying the Samaritan multitude on Mt. Gerizim. It is said the Eagle screams in Rome itself."

PONTIUS REBUKED

He paused, noting the uneasy reaction. They knew that the governor, Pontius Pilate, had been rebuked by the Emperor Tiberius for the Samaritan massacre, as well as for other brutal suppressions. Inevitably, trouble for Pilate bode trouble for Caiaphas.

The high priest squirmed, twisting his ring, as Gamaliel continued, suggesting the prudence of leaving the Nazarene sect to its own fate, like many others before it.

Then, amid the unsettled anxiety permeating the chamber, he warned soberly, "So in the present case, I tell you, keep away from these men, and let them alone."

He saw the blanched, shaken reaction and heaped on a theological oration. "If this plan or this undertaking is of men, it will fail; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them."

"You might even be found opposing God!"

He sat down, eased of a burden. The court capitulated hastily, uncomfortably. For appearances sake, it charged the group to speak no more "in the name of Jesus," had them flogged and let them go.

Gamaliel, the learned idealistic Pharisee, a teacher of Saul of Tarsus, and possibly also of bar-Nabas, had raised a bold protest to save the Apostles. And they went on teaching in the forbidden name of Jesus.

So did Saul, after a career of another kind.

Time To Check Bikes And Riders To Insure Summer Of Safe Riding, Chief Says

"There are more bike riders on the road in America than ever before — nearly 57 million — and we have our share of them right here in Gettysburg," Chief of Police Jack Barlett said today.

"With the warm weather coming on," he continued, "this is a good time to check bikes and riders to make sure they're both fit and ready to be on the road." He noted an increase in the number of cyclists in the area, particularly among adults.

"There are more adults these days, riding bikes for fun, fitness and recreation," he said. "They are using them to go to work or shopping or to go on picnics or other family outings. Before the cycling season really gets underway, they should make sure their bikes are in good, safe working order. A bike that has spent the winter in a basement or garage should be thoroughly checked out before it is used."

BIKE IS VEHICLE

"Spring is a perfect time to get bikes ready for summer use. Many bike retailers offer free safety inspections in which trained personnel check to make sure that brakes, wheel bearings, chains tires, steering mechanisms and other vital parts are in good condition. He noted too, that many civic and service groups are conducting bicycle safety programs in May, cooperating with local police departments and bike dealers."

"But just as important as a safe bicycle," he said, "is a safe rider. A bike is a vehicle and subject to the rules of vehicular traffic. It is the responsibility of each cyclist, young or old, to know and follow the rules of the road. Used properly, the bike can make a positive contribution to the fun, recreation and general well-being of the community. I hope all our citizens will learn and obey these rules, passed on to me by the Bicycle Institute of America."

BIKE SAFETY RULES

Observe all traffic regulations, red and green lights, one-way streets, stop signs.

Keep to the right and ride in a straight line. Always ride in single file.

Have white light on front and danger signal on rear for night riding.

Have satisfactory signaling device to warn of approach.

Give pedestrians the right of way. Avoid sidewalk; otherwise use extra care.

Look out for cars pulling out into traffic. Keep sharp look-out for sudden opening of auto doors.

Never hitch on other vehicles, "stunt" or race in traffic.

Never carry other riders, carry no packages that obstruct vision or prevent proper control of cycle. Be sure your brakes are operating efficiently and keep your bicycle in perfect running condition.

Slow down at all street intersections and look to right and left before crossing.

Always use proper hand signals for turning and stopping.

Don't weave in or out of traffic or swerve from side to side.

Governor Scranton has proclaimed April as Bicycle Safety Month in Pennsylvania.

PAROLE BOONE AT LEWISBURG

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A. Gordon Boone, former speaker of the Maryland House of Delegates, was paroled from a federal prison camp Wednesday after serving 13 months for mail fraud.

Warden O. G. Blackwell of U.S. Penitentiary here said Boone was released from the minimum security camp located at Allenwood, 11 miles north of Lewisburg.

Boone, 55, had been sentenced to three years following his conviction of mail fraud in connection with the operation of the now defunct Security Financial Insurance Corp.

Security Financial was the only Maryland firm chartered to insure deposits of savings and loan associations.

Boone resigned his position as House speaker when he was indicted on the fraud charges and said after his conviction on March 5, 1964, that he would end his political career. Baltimore County Court judges disbarred him from practicing law.

BERLIN (AP) — Martin Riesenburger, 69, chief rabbi of East Berlin, died Wednesday, the official East German news agency reported. No other details were available.

U.S. REMOVES 35 CORPSMEN IN INDONESIA

By DON HUTH

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—U.S. presidential envoy Ellsworth Bunker's mission to Indonesia ended today with agreement to pull out the American Peace Corps, long a target of Indonesia's Communists.

Bunker and President Sukarno issued a communique saying the corps will withdraw in the next few weeks because of "certain tensions" between the United States and Indonesia. About 35 American volunteers have been working in the sprawling island nation, most of them as athletic coaches.

TO LIMIT AID

The communique indicated that U.S. aid to Indonesia will be limited henceforth to technical assistance to a few Indonesian universities. American aid already has been slashed to less than $3 million a year from a previous level of more than $100 million.

Bunker has spent the past two weeks conferring with Sukarno and other officials on the deterioration in U.S.-Indonesian relations following American support of the Federation of Malaysia. Sukarno, backed by the powerful Indonesian Communist party is pledged to crush British-backed Malaysia.

LAST U.S. AGENCY

The United States shut down its information services after Communist-led demonstrators attacked them and the Indonesian government halted their operations.

The government also took over nominal control of American rubber plantations and oil properties after Communist demonstrations. The Ford Foundation withdrew voluntarily rather than submit to Red harassment.

HALTS DEMONSTRATIONS

Sukarno called a halt to anti-American demonstrations during the 10th anniversary celebration of the African-Asian Bandung conference, beginning today. But the Communists are expected to resume after the celebration is over. The Reds now are demanding that Sukarno break diplomatic relations with the United States.

U.S. officials did not expect Bunker's present mission to bring about any change in Sukarno's policies. The object was to determine whether the Indonesian government is willing to maintain working relations with the United States.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP) — Martin K. Schnurr, 66, president of the Bridgeport Brass Co. since 1963 and a former director of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., died Wednesday. Schnurr had been in the metals industry for more than 30 years.

There are 14 major museums in Bucharest, Rumania.

Students Abandon Beach To Build Church School For Pima Indian Youths

By DICK BIESER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For tens of thousands of Southern California teen-agers Easter week vacation is a time for frolic, a period of abandon to be spent at the beach, the mountains or the desert.

But there are some exceptions.

Twenty-eight boys and girls from the nearby Arcadia Presbyterian Church returned Wednesday from a week at the Gila Indian reservation in Arizona. Reflecting on what they called "the most spiritually uplifting experience of our lives," they told of painting and repairing buildings, erecting a wire fence around the grounds and clearing weeds from the church yard.

REMODELED BUILDING

A major project of the 16 boys was to remodel the Gila Crossing Presbyterian Church so it could be used as a church school. The 12 girls, among other things, conducted daily Bible classes for Pima Indian preschool youngsters.

The teen-agers did their own cooking and slept on the floors of church buildings.

Each day began with morning devotions at 6:30 and ended with vespers at 10:30 p.m.

PAID OWN EXPENSES

The teen-agers contributed $40 of their own money toward expenses of the trip.

A similar idea drew more than 100 young persons to the unincorporated town of Watts at the southern edge of Los Angeles. This forlorn area is a cluster of rundown neighborhoods surrounded by industry.

Litter is disappearing, yards are being landscaped and seven homes in one block are being painted—all free of charge by the teen-agers.

Their only reward was a dance arranged Wednesday night by sponsors of the project, school teacher Sue Welsh and artist Noah Purifoy.

Meanwhile, resort communities are jammed with other teen-agers.

During other Easter weeks widely known bands played long and loudly at the Rendezvous Ballroom at Balboa.

This year the old seaside ballroom is the setting for a Campus Crusade for Christ. One day this week, upwards of 600 teen-agers packed the place for a sermon by a magician-preacher.

Admits Backing Into Golf Victory

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—With four holes to play Open champion Ken Venturi held a four-stroke lead in the 13th IGO golf tournament. But he three-putted the last two holes and eked out a one-stroke victory over four others. He shot a final round par 71 for a 273 total.

"Spike marks were so bad on the 17th green it looked like they made the Tarzan movie there," said Venturi. "And on the 18th I played safe for the left rough but my ball hit a fan in the shoulder and I wound up in the trap with an almost unplayable lie."

Venturi went three strokes over par on the last two holes with a 4 and a 6. He was the first to admit he "baked into

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

The belief that perfume can work magic has a long history. It is recorded that the ancient Romans burned incense and offered up the fragrant smoke for the glorification of their gods. Our word perfume comes from the Latin perfume, from fumus, meaning smoke, fume.

In our times, the character of perfume is of course much changed. It now takes many forms and the object of its offeratory is the modern goddess. Still, it has lost none of its mystique. It works the same old magic.

When you wear fragrance you look lovelier because you feel lovelier. What's more, you add a kind of fourth dimension to your presence that others find intriguing and memorable.

If you are casting about for a final touch to a new costume, nothing could surpass a spring-time fragrance. A fresh, delicate scent would infuse your finery and your approach with an air as delicious as the season's. Why you can hardly afford not to wear one!

Admittedly the smallest flacon has its price. But when you consider the value received, you come to think that fragrance really is priceless. Besides, fine perfume is made of the costliest attars. Just think, attar of roses is distilled from hand-picked petals. And it takes three tons of petals to extract two pounds of attar!

Tradition, magic and precious oils—that's the stuff for fragrance. Small wonder it makes us girls feel so special.

TOURIST TIDE RESUMES IN ITALY TODAY

By BENNET M. BOLTON

ROME (AP)—The Easter tourist tide resumed in Italy today after a nationwide 24-hour rail strike ended. But other walkouts continued or were in the offing.

As pilgrims and holidaymakers once more poured into Rome, Pope Paul VI prepared to inaugurate three days of pre-Easter ritual by washing the feet of 12 physically handicapped youths in the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

The pontiff heightened the personal humility of the Holy Thursday rite this year by choosing instead of seminarians or priests 12 young men who are blind, deaf, crippled from polio or missing an arm or leg.

TRAVEL DISRUPTED

The ritual commemorates Christ's washing of the Apostles' feet at the Last Supper.

The one-day rail strike disrupted holiday travel at a time when the nation's merchants count on busy cash registers.

More than 90 per cent of Italy's 180,000 railwaymen stayed off the job from midnight to midnight, and only a few dozen of the 7,000 daily trains moved out of stations, manned by army crews.

The first trains that pulled out of stations after midnight were packed. More than 400,000 foreigners are expected in Italy for the Easter period.

Three major Communist and non-Communist unions called the strike to protest a bonus awarded to only a limited number of Transport Ministry employees for extra hours they spent on a state railway system reorganization. The unions said the bonus should go to all ministry employees.

Opera houses and symphonic halls were in the middle of a three-day strike protesting delay in putting promised state subsidies into effect.

FAIRFIELD—Mrs. Dale Dolly and Mrs. Charles Deardorff were hostesses at a surprise baby shower given Friday evening for Mrs. Tom Dolly at the home of Mrs. Dale Dolly. Guests present were: Mrs. Nancy Shank, Mrs. Sadie Dolly, Mrs. Faye Lawrence, Mrs. Betty Baker, Mrs. Shirley Hawkins, Mrs. Janice White, Mrs. Dennis Dolly, Mrs. Clara May Sanders, Mrs. Sharon Warner, Mrs. Weldon Shank Sr., Mrs. Anna M. Gall, Mrs. Jane Baumgardner, Mrs. Harry McNare, and Miss Vickie Shank.

Jose Lutz, associate county agent, and family were guests at a party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Tunison.

Mr. Lutz will be leaving for a job in Illinois. Eighteen persons from the extension office staff and friends attended.

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 757 will not meet this evening because of Holy Week and church services. The group will meet Wednesday evening, April 21 at 6:30 o'clock in the basement of the leader's home.

WASHINGTON (AP)—United Air Lines has 30 days in which to seek a review of a recommendation made by a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner Wednesday, which would eliminate its authority to serve Harrisburg and Williamsport, Pa., and Elmira-Corning, N.Y.

Examiner Milton H. Shapiro also recommended a denial of applications for Allegheny and Mohawk airlines for new routes to replace the service of United. They also have 30 days in which to seek a review.

Says Moon Shot Money Could Be Used Better

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, a camping and hiking enthusiast, says this country needs a Bill of Rights to help preserve its natural wildlife.

Douglas, speaking before a group of 500 Rotarians Wednesday, warned there will be no wilderness left by the end of the century, unless steps are taken now to protect these areas.

"We need a Bill of Rights for Wilderness," he said.

He also urged cities to construct nature trails, "so that people, especially children, can see the beauties of nature."

The four main threats against the nation's natural wilderness, he said, are roads, motorized equipment, power lines and polluted rivers.

He said it would cost no more to build sewage disposal plants in this country to clean up the rivers than it would to put a man on the moon, and added:

"I have a feeling the money should go to sewage disposal."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Marie Albrege, 64, of Philadelphia, has been identified as the woman who was killed by a Pennsylvania Railroad train near the Holmesburg Station.

Police said Tuesday she had been thrown about 40 feet after being struck by the train en route from New York. The accident occurred Monday.

ANNOUNCEMENT

John E. Settle Jr. wishes to announce he will discontinue his association with Settle's Electric Service of Gettysburg, effective Monday, April 19. The business will remain in operation under his father and brother.

2 EDUCATION BILLS OFFERED IN PA. HOUSE

HARRISBURG—Two bills were introduced into the House of Representatives this week which are aimed at increased subsidies for school districts and an improved salary schedule for teachers and administrators.

Both bills have bipartisan support and the backing of the joint action committee, combined unit of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, Pennsylvania School Boards Association and the Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The subsidy bill is sponsored by Mrs. Jeannette Reibman (D-Northampton), Beryl H. Klein (D-Berks), Fred J. Shupnik (D-Luzerne), William C. Buchanan (D-Indiana), Ray C. Goodrich (R-Potter), and R. Brady Hetrick (D-Mifflin). The salary bill is sponsored by Mrs. Reibman, Mr. Klein, James Musto (D-Luzerne), and Messrs. Buchanan, Goodrich and Hetrick.

FIXES SUBSIDY BASE

The subsidy bill fixes the maximum subsidy base for the 1964-65 school year and thereafter at the actual cost per teaching unit as determined by the Department of Public Instruction, whichever is less. Present subsidy is based on a $4,000 reimbursement.

Backers of the bill point out that average cost to school districts per teaching unit approaches $10,000 whereas the $4,000 figure fixed in the 1963 session of the General Assembly was considered inadequate even then, although an improvement over the former $6,000.

There are few, if any, districts spending as little as $6,000 today. Average costs have risen to $8,471 in 1961-62 and to $9,661 in 1962-63. Because of these increases, half of the school districts have had to raise a minimum of $2,000 per unit through local taxation. Estimates are that in excess of $100 million in local taxes have been levied to meet the additional costs without any additional state support.

BILL TO END BILLS

The present bill, backers contend, will more nearly restore the accepted state-local sharing ratio of 50-50 formerly in existence in 1957-58.

Because of the flexible and fluctuating base (described as average or actual, whichever is lesser), the bill could be the school subsidy bill to end all subsidy bills and the present "patchwork" approach of altering the subsidy base in fixed dollar amounts to conform to the number of dollars in former bills, its backers claim.

The measure also provides that the local effort for each school district shall be in the same ratio to the average cost or actual cost per teaching unit, whichever is the lesser, as 5.129 mills are to $6,000, and that the minimum subsidy per unit be raised to $1,500.

ELIMINATE FRACTION

The bill also eliminates the subsidiary account reimbursement fraction. The basic account reimbursement fraction will be used in computing all subsidies in which the subsidiary account fraction formerly was used.

A companion bill introduced simultaneously will improve the present public school employee salary schedule by adding a ratio feature for administrators and certain categories of teachers, an adjustment program for those

Hopes To Settle Viet Nam Crisis

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Special British envoy Patrick Gordon Walker arrived in Southeast Asia today and said he is prepared to take good advantage of "any opening for a negotiated settlement of the Viet Nam crisis."

The former foreign secretary said the purpose of his Far Eastern tour is "primarily fact finding, which includes opinions."

He did not elaborate but emphasized, "If any opening presents itself, one would be quick to take advantage of it."

Gordon Walker said he had no fresh word on the peace-seeking visits he would like to make to Communist China and North Viet Nam. Both Communist governments have refused to see him.

lower than the present schedule and compensation on a pro rata basis for teachers who work beyond a 180-day school term.

Under this program, the current minimum mandated $4,500 beginning salary remains the same, but three additional $300 increments are added to the present for teachers holding a college certificate. Thus, the minimum schedule calls for a range of $4,500-7,200 for teachers with bachelor's degrees. Those with master's degrees are eligible for two additional $300 raises. This applies to all categories in the schedule.

It is estimated that this bill will cost approximately $54.5 million in salary increases, to be borne by both the state and local districts. The increased instructional costs in the proposed subsidy bill will cover the salary measure.

Will Use Goats In Milking Contest

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP) — Plans for a milking contest at the Downey Community Fair next month had to be altered because dairy officials say many tired businessmen have wrinkled hands.

A pair of goats will be substituted after dairy officials protested the original plan to use cows, saying:

"It's too risky having the wrinkled hands of any old businessman trying to squeeze milk out of our modern-day cows. Cows nowadays are used to the soft touch of a milking machine."

Last Day To File Income Tax Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Today is the deadline for filing federal income tax returns.

They must be postmarked by midnight tonight, or there will be a penalty.

Although only the return must be in the mail today, there is a saving in enclosing any money you owe. Late payments are subject to interest charges.

PLYMOUTH MEETING, Pa. (AP) — A collision between a dump truck and a car Monday killed Michael Voite, 20, of 37 Cherry Lane, Levittown, Pa. Police said Voite's auto collided with a truck driven by George Pendleton of 1630 Summit Ave., Willow Grove, on the Germantown Pike in this Montgomery County town. Pendleton escaped injury.

GOP LEADERS CALL FOR FIRM STAND IN ASIA

By LES SCHLANGEN

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Republican party leaders called for a firm stand in Viet Nam at a dinner Wednesday night honoring Barry Goldwater, who once again led for an end to intraparty bickering.

Friends and supporters showed up 1,700 strong for the $100-a-couple testimonial dinner for the former Arizona senator and 1964 GOP presidential candidate.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said, "Goldwater was right during the campaign and President Johnson is right now on Viet Nam policy."

And he said the President's policy is likely to prevail, "largely because of solid Republican support for a firm stand in South Viet Nam."

PRaises Goldwater

Ray Bliss, the former Ohio Republican leader who took over as a national chairman April 1, praised Goldwater as "one man who could be counted upon any time to go anywhere to raise funds for the party or help a fellow Republican."

The partisan crowd saved its mightiest cheers for Goldwater, who said: "There's no reason why the world's greatest power should talk about negotiations or a settlement in Viet Nam."

Goldwater told the audience, "We are a minority party in the state and nation. Let's not choose up sides and fight each other but get on with winning the 1968 elections."

Last Jewish Class At Moscow Synagogue Was Graduated 3 Years Ago

By FRED COLEMAN
MOSCOW (AP) — The white-bearded chief rabbi of Moscow's main synagogue picked up an unframed photograph from his cluttered office desk and observed proudly:

"Our last graduating class." The class of less than 30 included men trained as kosher butchers or as cantors, the so-called chazzan, who chant prayers at Jewish services. The handful of others were rabbis trained at the only rabbinical seminary in the Soviet Union.

That was three years ago. The Moscow seminary closed soon after the photograph was taken. Students from all over the country want to study at the seminary, Chief Rabbi Yehuda Liev Levin said, but they are told there is no place for them to live in crowded Moscow and are refused residence permits.

NO LIBRARY SCHOOL

The rabbi, 71, was speaking at an interview that had taken 11 months to arrange.

The rabbi said his synagogue has no library and no Hebrew school, although the temple is traditionally a center of Jewish learning. There is no Jewish theater or center of Jewish culture for Moscow's 500,000 Jews.

Official figures say there are 2½ million Jews in the Soviet Union, but independent estimates often reach 3½ million or more.

The rabbi said no Hebrew prayer books had been published here since 1956.

NO JEWISH CEMETERY

The rabbi said his synagogue was supported financially "by the believers." Asked whether his congregation gets financial help from Jews abroad, he replied: "They don't need it." He did not deny the existence of such help, and other Jewish sources said the congregation was unable to support the temple by itself. The spacious, well-kept synagogue has balcony seating for women, and has the holy Torah scrolls and other essentials for Jewish worship.

The rabbi said he occasionally officiates at weddings. There is no Jewish cemetery. The common burial grounds provided for Christians and Jews alike violate Jewish teachings.

MOSTLY "PIONEERS"

An indication of few young people in the congregation came in reply to a question about the bar mitzvah, the ceremony denoting that a 13-year-old boy has become a man.

"We don't have very many here," the rabbi said. "Almost 90 per cent of our children are Pioneers."

The Pioneers are a Leninist children's organization.

The rabbi said he does not know the size of his congregation but that at least 300 come to the temple daily and up to 1,000 on the Sabbath.

STATE WATCHDOG
Menasha Mikhailovich, who identified himself as chairman of the Jewish community, sat next to the rabbi during the interview, adding comments.

When the rabbi said he had three married daughters and 13 grandchildren, Mikhailovich added, "The rabbi wants to say that it was possible to raise such a family only under the Soviet state."

Jewish sources indicated Mikhailovich served as a state watchdog at the temple.

The rabbi was asked about anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union, a charge raised repeatedly from abroad.

"In the Soviet Union, we have no anti-Semitism. But maybe there are some anti-Semites," he replied.

"Under the Soviet constitution our state punishes any offenses against national minorities," he added.

Such offenses are often difficult to prove. It is difficult to distinguish between anti-Semitism and anti-religion. Russian Orthodox prelates face many of the same problems the rabbi does.

Issue Warning On Easter Toy

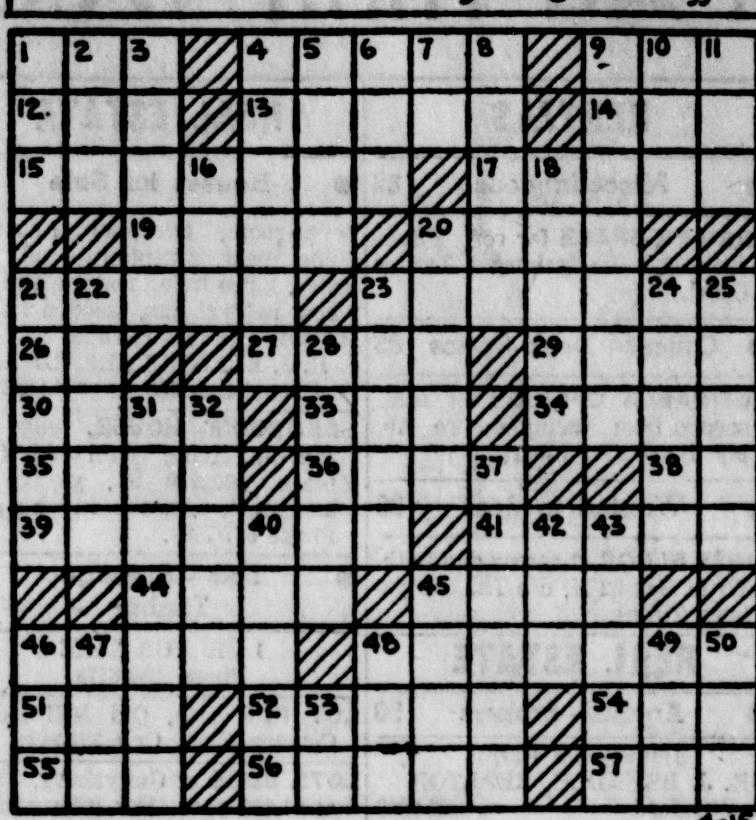

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Labor and Industry Department is warning parents to be on the lookout for a lifelike toy duckling being sold in various parts of the state in connection with Easter.

The ducklings bear an organism called salmonella, which tends to upset the stomach and in the case of very small children could prove lethal, a department spokesman said Wednesday night.

Sale of the ducklings violates state law, but, according to J. Hugh McNeill, director of public relations for the department, many merchants are unaware of the violation.

The General Assembly in 1961 enacted a law forbidding the sale of stuffed toys in Pennsylvania without inspection by the Labor and Industry Department.

Collapsible Dam To Be Installed On Susquehanna At Sunbury For $900,000

By DAVE LEHERR

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania is just steps away from starting construction on one of the new wonders of the push-button age — a collapsible dam that can be inflated or deflated with the flick of a switch.

The $900,000-dam will be built on the Susquehanna River near Sunbury. It will create one of the finest water-based recreation spots in Pennsylvania.

Plans call for a multisection rubberized dam 7½-feet high and 1,975-feet long, located three miles below the confluence of the north and west branches of the Susquehanna.

The Susquehanna rises in upper New York State and flows into the Chesapeake Bay. Among river systems east of the Mississippi, it is ranked third by hydrologists, behind the St. Lawrence and Tennessee.

Once completed, the dam is expected to resemble seven giant "tear-drops" or "sausages" strung together across the river.

3,000 ACRES

Inflated with water on the bottom and air at the top, the dam will form a 3,000-acre pool of water surface for boating, fishing and, eventually, swimming.

In times of flood warning, it can be deflated within minutes to let high waters pass downstream.

Operation of the dam will be controlled by a pump-house on the east bank of the river where water and air can be pumped into and taken out of the fabric "bags" with the press of a button to keep the river at predetermined elevations throughout the year.

Each section of the "fabri-dam" will hold up to 85,500 gallons of water and 9,000 cubic feet of air, says Clifford H. McConnell, chief engineer of the division of waters in the Pennsylvania Forests and Waters Department.

STRONG AND DURABLE
"The dam will be made of a tough laminated material, combining rubber and nylon," he said. "One inch of this material can support 3200 pounds of pressure."

So strong and durable is the material, dam designers feel it can withstand heavy ice jams, floating trees or houses, and even a hunter who might accidentally shoot a hole into it.

"The pressure will be about 2½ to 3 pounds per square inch, so low that bullet holes would have practically no effect," McConnell says. "It would be like patching a tire to repair it."

DEFLATE AUTOMATICALLY

Plans call for the state to keep the dam at a deflated position for the spring floods, then inflate it to create a pool about eight feet in depth for the summer recreation season.

In the event of surprise flooding or excessive high waters, the rubberized bags automatically would start deflating through a syphon process.

SUNDAY LIQUOR CALLED 'LURE'

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Pocono Mountain resort area might attract more tourists if liquor could be sold there on Sundays, says the president and general manager of the Buck Hill Falls Co.

The company official, Richard Edgerdon, said Sunday liquor sales would not only benefit the interests of local residents, but would also bring added revenue to the Commonwealth.

Edgerdon spoke Wednesday at the second of three scheduled hearings to explore methods of attracting tourists to Pennsylvania.

Rep. Van D. Yetter, D-Monroe, who headed the hearing, said that bills that will increase the state's share of matching funds for tourist promotion are being prepared and should be ready for introduction in the legislature after the Easter break.

German prospectors have struck natural gas under the North Sea, and experts believe major oil deposits will be found there.

Formosa's Economic Miracle Began With Land Reform

By JOHN RODERICK

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Sixteen years ago it was written off by most Americans as finished, yet the Republic of China in 1965 is remarkably alive and kicking.

Its similarities to Viet Nam and Korea are striking, but there is a difference. Chiang has cost hardly a single American life since 1949, and is one of the most stable governments in Asia. Economically, things are so good that U.S. economic aid will end in June.

Agriculture is prospering, industry is humming and plans are being made for the introduction of heavy industry.

In 1949, the Communists had decisively beaten Chiang's army of 5 million and he was barely able, with 2 million supporters, to escape to this island province 125 miles off the Chinese mainland.

RECOGNIZE RULER

Yet, today the Republic of China is recognized as the rightful rulers of China's 720-million people by 69 nations (far fewer acknowledge the Communists, who in fact control the country). It occupies China's seat in the United Nations. It has never been seriously threatened by the Chinese Communist armed forces of 2,150,000 and, instead of losing supporters, it is picking them up.

How after falling to such depths was it able to pull itself up to its present state?

One answer is that Chiang is a man who does not give up without a fight. His associates, men of shrewdness, intelligence and similar tenacity, poured millions of dollars into a great public relations effort, known as the "China lobby," to restore Chiang's tarnished image in the United States.

Their success was phenomenal, but it alone could not have turned the trick. The Chinese Communists themselves lent a helping hand, first by rebuffing the diplomatic overtures the U.S. was inclined to extend, then by engaging U.S. troops in a bloody and costly war in Korea.

By 1950, the abandoned generalissimo had come to look like the last lonely outpost against communism in Asia.

AID TO CHIANG

The U.S. sent Chiang a military advisory group which at its peak in 1956 totaled 2,300 men. It now has been scaled down to less than 950 and is gradually being phased out. Its job: To deliver new equipment to the remnants of Chiang's F-104G, F-100, and Sabre jet forces and train them to use it.

How well the mission succeeded can be observed here almost at a glance. The big, ill-disciplined army of the mainland has been honed into an efficient fighting force including a 400,000-man army, a 90,000-man air force (equipped with American F-104G, F-100, and Sabre jet planes, Nike-Mercuries and Hawk ground-to-air missiles) and a small, modern navy of 60,000. "It is now," said one MAAG officer, "a firm and reliable partner of the U.S."

The generalissimo, an aging hero-figure, thunders each year that he plans to use this crack military machine to stage a comeback on the mainland. The Chinese argue that, despite the disparity in the sizes of the two armies, the Nationalists could make a landing in one of the southern provinces because Communist strength is scattered from Manchuria to Tibet. FEAR CHINESE BOMB Now that the Communists have exploded an atom bomb, they continue, time is running out both for them and for the United States.

This falls on deaf ears in Washington, and the Nationalists recognize it. They don't really hold out much hope of a comeback though it is politically necessary to keep up morale by asserting it is just in the offing.

Formosa's "economic miracle" dates from 1962, when the last state of the land reform program was completed.

Begun in 1949, the Formosan program was carried out in three states. The first was rent reduction from 50 to 70 percent down to a uniform 37.5 percent of the annual crop yield. The second was government sale of all its land to tenant farmers at fixed prices equal to 2.5 times the value of yearly crop production, with payment over a 20-year period. The last was a "land-to-the-tiller" law enacted in 1953 which limited absentee landlords to 7.5 acres each. The government bought the surplus and sold it to the present owners in easy installments. As a result, per acre yield of rice has shot up by 41 percent in 10 years, income of farm families has more than doubled.

INDUSTRIAL BOOM

More important, the dispossessed Formosan landlords used their new capital to invest in industry, laying the basis for the present industrial boom.

Other factors in the "miracle" include hard work, a sound economic base inherited from the Japanese who occupied the island for 50 years, two years of typhoon-free weather, U.S. aid totalling $1.4 billion and a cheap labor market.

The low cost of labor has contributed to an average 11.4 percent growth in industry, exceeded in Asia only by Japan's. Much of this is light industry such as food processing, textiles, fertilizers, iron and steel, petroleum and cement. There are 24,700 factories employing 450,000 people.

The U.S. decision to halt economic aid was based on the fact that Formosa has achieved what it calls "self-generating growth," that is, an ability to look after itself. U.S. officials say much remains to be done.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW

"There are not enough schoolrooms, social welfare is crude and primitive, government salaries are inadequate, there is much unemployment, and per capita income (U.S. $160 a year) is low," an official said. "It is far from being an affluent society. But it has the capital stock base to paddle its own canoe."

Formosa's security has been bought at a price.

Sixteen years after its ouster from China, the republic is still under martial law. Strikes are outlawed; freedom of the press is virtually non-existent, and though there has been some relaxation in recent years, the Kuomintang has yet to accustom itself to the idea of opposition.

"Despite all this," said one American administrator, "the situation is as good here politically, perhaps better, than it is in Korea and Viet Nam, where we are also involved. We are not on Cloud 9 as some people in Washington think. And to say that this is a showcase of democracy is hogwash. But it's like being married. We took the mother-in-law along with the wife."

The emu, second largest of all living birds, is a flightless creature that stands five feet high, runs swiftly and swims powerfully.

Asks Council On Arts In Penna.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., who is co-sponsoring a bill to establish a national arts foundation, has asked Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania to set up a state council to encourage interest in the arts.

Scott said Wednesday that a state arts council could help local theater groups, stimulate community discussion of cultural issues, work with municipalities and colleges to sponsor artists-in-residence, stimulate interest in Shakespearean and other classic plays and aid orchestra groups.

Historian Ponders Role Of Washington's Ghost In John Wilkes Booth Case

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Standing inside Ford's Theater, amid the rubble of reconstruction work, a historian muses fancifully:

"Could it be that the ghost of George Washington was the first to exact punishment from the assassin of Abraham Lincoln?"

One hundred years ago last night, John Wilkes Booth, hard-drinking actor, stole into a box where Lincoln was enjoying the play "Our American Cousin," and shot him in the back of the head. The wounded president was carried across the street to a boarding house, where he died the following morning.

After firing the fatal shot, Booth stabbed a military aide. Then he vaulted over the balustrade of the box to the stage 11 feet below.

In his jump, one of the spurs Booth was wearing caught on a picture of Washington which decorated the box. It also tore the edge of a flag draped above the picture.

When Booth hit the stage, a bone in his left leg was broken. Dr. George J. Olszewski, historian for the National Park Service, which is restoring the old theater to its 1865 state, has no means of knowing whether the encounter with the picture led to Booth's fractured leg. But he reflects that if this were true, there would be a certain grim historic justice to it.

SHOT BY SOLDIER
Grimmer justice overtook Booth 12 days later. Federal cavalry cornered him in a Virginia barn and set it afire, in hopes of driving him out and taking him alive. But an over-

ELSTON HOWARD OUT FOR WEEK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Elston Howard of the New York Yankees has joined five other catchers sitting on the sidelines with the baseball season only two days old.

Howard's injury — a pulled muscle above the elbow of his throwing arm — will keep him out of action at least a week.

Howard was unable to lift his arm on the Yankees' plane when they left Minneapolis after the opening game Monday. An examination Tuesday disclosed Howard had re-injured the same muscle he had hurt during an exhibition set in Puerto Rico.

Other catchers currently sitting it out with various ailments are Bill Freehan of Detroit, Earl Battey of Minnesota, Jim Pagliaroni of Pittsburgh and Tim McCarver and Bob Uecker of St. Louis.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A woman office employee of the International Association of Machinists, Local 159, AFL-CIO, has been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of embezzling $9,210 in union funds between Jan. 31, 1961, and Jan. 31, 1964. A U.S. District Court judge Tuesday handed up the indictment against Mrs. Jean A. Williams, 40, and signed a warrant for her arrest.

Traffic police reported jams on major highways.

The rail strike was called to protest a Ministry of Transport decision to give 2,000 high-level ministry employees overtime pay for work on a railway modernization system. The unions demanded the bonuses for all employees of the ministry.

The striking unions in the opera and concert houses complained that a new law providing state aid for the houses will not become operative in time to prevent dismissal of many employees and closure of some theaters.

RAIL STRIKES DISRUPT ROME EASTER TRADE

ROME (AP) — Strikes hit Italy's railway system Wednesday and closed the nation's opera houses and concert halls at the height of the Easter tourist season.

The railway strike was to last only 24 hours. The strike in the opera and concert houses was called for Wednesday, today and Saturday.

The rail strike halted practically all service on the state system, delaying the annual Holy Week influx into Rome. Only a handful of the 7,000 daily trains operated. Most international trains were halted at the Italian border.

HIGHWAY JAMS
Special buses shuttled passengers between Milan and the main railway stations on the Italian-Swiss and Italian-French frontiers.

SAYS MENTAL HOSPITALS STILL SHORT

By PAUL ZDINAK
Associated Press Writer

HARRISBURG (AP) — There is still a shortage of personnel at the 19 state mental hospitals but the situation is improving.

Arin M. Adams, secretary of welfare, made the assessment in an interview. He cautioned, however, that the problem would not be resolved in the near future.

"The number of psychiatrists, doctors, nurses and attendants per 1,000 patients in the state has gradually gone up in the last three years," Adams said.

As for the future, he said the situation "looks considerably brighter."

SEES TWO CAUSES

Adams said the problem in Pennsylvania is a combination of low salaries and a nationwide shortage of nurses, psychiatrists, and other personnel.

Just how critical is the shortage? The American Psychiatric Association (APA) has listed standards for the number of personnel it says states should have in mental hospitals.

Here is how the APA figures, broken down in categories, compared with state figures as of June, 1964:

PROPOSED REMEDY

Attendants—state 6,546, APA 7,652; physicians—state 301, APA 404; nurses (R.N.)—state 909, APA 2,247; psychologists—state 73, APA 97.

As of last February, according to Welfare Department figures, there were 641 vacancies out of 13,989 positions in the state's mental hospital system.

"The biggest remedy, legislation-wise, is the proposed $11 million pay raise for state employees," Adams said. "I think it will be passed."

The proposed pay raise calls for a minimum raise of five per cent.

"The bulk of the pay raise would go into mental health," Adams said.

"Many of the pay increases would be beyond the five per cent figure in mental health. They would be in the seven or eight per cent category," the secretary continued.

As the statistics indicate, there is a big shortage of nurses and attendants. Starting salaries are $3,925 a year for nurses and $3,007 for attendants.

Adams calls the attendants the "work horse" category in the mental health field.

SAYS NEW PILL WILL PRESERVE LADY'S YOUTH

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Older women can regain or keep many of the appearances and feelings of youth by taking a programmed daily series of pills after menopause, says a Michigan physician.

The hormone replacement therapy series — scheduled like the pill used for contraception — is up for approval of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, Dr. Francis P. Rhoades of Detroit said Tuesday.

"It can preserve the femininity of 17 million post-menopausal females in the United States," Dr. Rhoades said in an interview.

"It will cost far less than a cocktail and do them a lot more good," commented Dr. Rhoades, who estimated mass production could cut the cost to about 10 cents a day.

Dr. Rhoades, chief of Grace Hospital's division of general practice, was manning a scientific exhibit on the subject at the annual scientific assembly of the American Academy of General Practice.

The menopausal woman, he explained, lacks endocrine secretions which create the feminine characteristics — she is essentially a castrate.

Changes that occur include loss of strength, feminine curves and zest. There are increases in blood pressure, bone brittleness, mental and emotional troubles, and in some cases coronary disease.

"Adequate supplemental estrogen and progesterone therapy will prevent or minimize disorders of the menopause," Dr. Rhoades said.

He advised that post-menopausal women take the pills the rest of their lives.

Israel-Germany Agreement Near

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — An Israeli-West German agreement for establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries has been hammered out, but a few hitches remain.

Dr. Kurt Birrenbach, West German Negotiator, flew home Wednesday after conceding in an airport interview that "there still are some outstanding problems to be settled."

Premier Levi Eshkol and other Israeli officials had nothing to say about the agreement.

Would Restore Cut In Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration witnesses have asked a Senate subcommittee to restore part of the $18.3 million trimmed by the House from funds to launch the Appalachian development program.

The House approved $344.3 million of the $362.6 million asked by President Johnson to start the program. Witnesses Tuesday asked the Senate group to put back two-thirds of the reduction in a supplemental appropriation bill.

But subcommittee chairman John O. Pastore, D-R.I., wasn't completely swayed by their arguments.

"These are at best estimates of the cost," he said. "We'll have another bill in July. Why not wait until then when we will have more information?"

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Convicted bank robber Clarence W. Jones, 36, who used a bicycle to make his getaway has been sentenced to an additional 20 to 40 years in prison on charges of robbing 12 center city stores. Jones, is now serving a 30-year term in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg for the bank hold-ups. The new sentences, which he received Tuesday, starts when he completes the federal term.

Heartbreak And Hardship In Wake Of Sunday Twisters

By JOHN F. WHEELER
TOLEDO, Ohio, (AP) — A friend took Mrs. William Jones to buy new shoes for a funeral today.

The Toledo preacher's wife, like hundreds of other Ohioans, lost all her possessions in Sunday's terrible twister here.

But she lived. Her father, grandmother and 11 others in this area were killed.

Tuesday, a friend helped Mrs. Jones, 33, buy the shoes. Her husband was searching the debris of their home for anything of value.

TYPICAL CASE

Their efforts, and heartbreak, were typical across the state:

— In Pittsfield, 100 miles away, the phone still rings in Robert J. Diedrick's shell of a house — one of the few places with walls in the town of 50 residents where nine died. Diedrick looks at his decimated herd of cattle — 20 of 40 head killed.

— At Radnor, a central Ohio town of 300 people, neighbors rounded up the 300 unattended hogs of Paul Zeigler and took them to market. Zeigler, hurled 500 feet by a tornado, was treated and released at a hospital. His wife, Gertrude, had hold of his hand as they sought shelter in the basement. She was killed.

"WE WERE LUCKY"

— In Amherst, near Pittsfield, Richard Kay, 43, came out of sedation and said: "We were lucky. We were the main survivors of the whole community." Kay's mother was killed, but he, his wife and four children lived.

— At Lima, Dennis Miller, 38, hospitalized with a back injury, recalled how his house trailer was carried three miles by the storm. Miller and his family took refuge on the floor of a nearby brick building, it fell on them, but he says, "We were very fortunate. We had somebody with us, I'll tell you."

What will the survivors do now, without homes and clothing?

"WILL COME BACK"

"I suppose I'm being dramatic, but knowing the people, Pittsfield will be back again," said Kay. An electrical foreman at Oberlin College, he and his family have been provided with temporary living quarters by the college. He figured the loss of his home at about $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Jones, whose husband is pastor of the Trinity Episcopal church, said, "Someone has offered us a home for a few months." Today she went to Harrisonburg, Va. for the funeral of her father, Percy H. Warren, 59, and her grandmother, Mrs. James Moran.

Lorain County agricultural agent Harold Spence said he thinks Diedrick, who has seven children, will stay in the dairy business. He estimated Diedrick's loss at $64,000.

New Racial Fuss In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charles W. Brower, a Negro attorney, was appointed head of the city's anti-poverty program Tuesday and promptly touched off a battle between the mayor and the head of the Philadelphia chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Brower, 34, appointed to the $17,000 a year post by Mayor James H. J. Tate, was selected over another candidate, Isaiah Crippins, who had been supported by the NAACP.

Cecil B. Moore, president of the local NAACP, said earlier this month that Crippins had been rejected because he was too closely associated with the NAACP.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The proposed merger of the Keystone Automobile Club and the Automobile Club of America (AAA) has been postponed at the request of attorneys. Both counsels were granted a continuance in Common Pleas Court until the Department of Justice completes its investigation of the merger.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police said a holdup man pistol-whipped Joe Roane, 23, a messenger for Revere Press, and robbed a $2,500 payroll from him Tuesday.

SON OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESIDENT HELD IN DEATHS

YADKINVILLE, N.C. (AP) —

The 24-year-old son of the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad is free on bail today on a manslaughter charge stemming from an auto accident in which three persons lost their lives.

The youth, Stuart Thomas Saunders Jr., of Philadelphia will be tried in the May 10 term of Yadkin Superior Court. He posted bail Tuesday. Judge H. Smith Williams found probable cause at the preliminary hearing.

GIRL UNCONSCIOUS

State Highway Patrolman S. B. Williams testified that Saunders was driving a car that struck another car March 28 about six miles south of Elkin.

on U.S. 21.

Killed in the accident were Theodore Webster Radin, 23, of Arlington, Va., and Patricia Davis, 21 of Glade Springs, Va., occupants of the other car; and Edward James Kelly, 29, of Flemingsburg, Ky., a passenger in Saunders' car.

Saunders, a law student at the University of Virginia, was only slightly injured. Another passenger in his car, Barbara Cay, 22, of Atlanta, Ga., still is unconscious in a Winston-Salem hospital.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police have arrested a fifth person on information supplied by convicted burglar George Bricker. Sidney Brooks 42, was charged Tuesday with burglary in the theft of $16,350 in furs, jewelry and cash from a city apartment on Jan. 30, 1964. Bricker was quoted as telling police Brooks was his accomplice in the burglary.

3 SUSPECTS IN REEB SLAYING GET MAY TRIAL

By JOE ZELLNER
SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Three white men indicted on charges of first-degree murder in the civil rights slaying of the Rev. James Reeb of Boston face a possible May trial.

Circuit Solicitor Blanchard McLeod said the trial will be placed on the docket of the regular session of Dallas County Criminal Court beginning May 10. Circuit Judge James A. Hare, however, said their trial may not come up until October as there is a heavy docket for the May term.

DEATH OR LIFE

The maximum penalty for first-degree murder in Alabama is death or life imprisonment. The jury determines the sentence.

The men were indicted Tuesday by a grand jury and arrested a few hours later by the sheriff's department. They were released under $10,000 bond each.

The men, all of Selma, are O'Neal Hoggie, 30; his brother, William Stanley Hoggie, 36; and Elmer Cook, 41. A fourth man, R.B. Kelly, 30, was not indicted.

The three and Kelly also have been charged in federal warrants with violation of Reeb's civil rights. They had been free under city and federal bonds totaling $12,500 each.

Reeb took part in civil rights activities in Selma during the early part of March. The white minister was beaten on a city street the night of March 9 and died two days later.

Hare told the grand jury that racial troubles have created a state of national anarchy and insanity. He reviewed Selma's racial unrest in a charge to the jury, composed of white men.

At Montgomery, Gov. George C. Wallace called a conference of Negro educators to discuss school problems "with particular regard to dropouts." He sent telegrams to presidents and directors of all state-operated Negro institutions asking them to meet with him in his office Friday.

Separated Twins Leave Hospital

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — "They don't need a doctor anymore," a hospital spokesman in Houston said Tuesday when the Webber Siamese twins were discharged from Texas Children's Hospital — 23 days after being separated by a team of surgeons.

The twins, Karen Marie and Kimberly Marie, were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Webber Jr. on the 80-mile trip to their home in Bay City, Tex. The twins, born Dec. 8, 1964, had common liver, breastbone and heart membrane areas.

RESEARCH ON COAL GAINING

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Coal Research is even more enthused today than it was in 1963 over prospects of finding a commercially feasible process to make 100 octane gasoline from soft coal.

"We think it looks real good," G. Edward Larson, chief of the office's division of contracts and administration, said of laboratory investigations now under way. "Things have happened since we began this project which make the outlook appear better than it did at the outset."

The initial contract for the laboratory investigations, construction of a pilot plant and tests on at least three types of soft coal was awarded by the office, a branch of the Interior Department, in August 1963.

The Consolidation Coal Co., the prime contractor, has been conducting laboratory investigations at Libby, Pa., while a subcontractor has prepared the design for the pilot plant. Larson said Consolidation should be ready to award a contract for construction of the plant about July 1.

NEWVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Authorities estimate damage at $25,000 in a fire that destroyed a sawmill Monday on a farm three miles east of this Cumberland County borough. There were no injuries.

Oregon produced 3,400,000 pounds of cranberries last year.

TOWN REMOVED BY TORNADO

SHIPSHEWANA, Ind. (AP) — Rainbow Lake wasn't on the map.

It's not even on the ground now.

Fifteen persons died within seconds Palm Sunday as a tornado splintered three dozen homes at the junction of U.S. 20 and Indiana 5, a mile south of Shippshewana.

"This is what you call complete devastation," said Trooper T. R. Jack, 36, Lagrange. "The homes are gone; even the rubble is gone."

Only the skeletal concrete rectangles of foundations mark where the victims once lived, then suddenly died.

Many of the victims were Mennonites. Unlike the Amish in this horse-and-buggy area of northern Indiana, they had modern

France Will Sell More Cars To China

The agency said a contract signed in Peking Monday was the third such agreement since France and China established diplomatic relations nearly a year ago.

ern appliances but for many the warnings broadcast left too little time.

Noble Harrer, 35, was able to herd his wife and child into a basement. They survived, but he died trying to shepherd his parents, also killed, to safety.

The tornado cut a swath of destruction 1,500 yards wide by Jack's estimate.

Two couples, including an elementary school principal, died in one house. The hospital list of injured numbered 35. Another 100 were treated and released.

Telephone Directory

DEADLINE FOR FINAL CHANGES

More and more families these days are deriving new usefulness and convenience from their telephone directory by listing not just the head of the household, but all of the family's adult members. It's a wonderful idea. Try it. Businessmen, too, find that additional listings in the telephone directory are the best advertising investment they can make. How about you? A new directory is about to go to press, so now is the time to call or visit your telephone business office and give us any desired changes in either the white section or the yellow pages. Better do it right away, because the directory will be closing shortly.

Set oven at 350 degrees. Grease and dust with flour a 10-inch tube pan. Cream butter and half of flour until light and fluffy. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites with salt and cream of tartar until they hold soft peaks. Add sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Beat whites at least 5 minutes, or until they are very firm. Fold ¼ of the stiffly beaten egg whites thoroughly into creamed butter-flour mixture. Pour mixture back over remaining egg whites. Fold gently together while sprinkling in remaining flour. Be careful not to overmix. Pour into prepared pan. Bake about 1 hour, or until the cake is golden brown and pulls away from sides of pan.

Compromise Bill Approved By House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has approved and sent to the Senate a compromise bill that authorizes spending $30 million to run the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for the next three years.

The House vote Tuesday was 314 to 65. The compromise splits the difference between the House bill authorizing $40 million for four years and the Senate measure authorizing $20 million for two years.

The administration had asked for $35 million over four years.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Nicholas A. Masters, professor of political science at Pennsylvania state University, was named Wednesday as a member of the staff of the Senate-House committee on organization of the Congress. He has been granted temporary leave by the university for the duration of his assignment with the committee.

With a fork until well mixed. Press on bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly browned — 12 to 15 minutes; chill. In a large bowl sprinkle gelatin over ¼ cup milk. Bring remaining ¼ cups milk just to a boil; pour over gelatin; stir until the gelatin is completely dissolved; cool for 10 minutes. Stir in the corn syrup. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Fold in whipped cream and vanilla. Turn into coconut shell. Freeze until firm. Let stand at room temperature ¼ hour before service; pie should be slightly frozen when served.

Johnson Does Not Want 2 New Cars

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has no intention of using two new armored cars for which the House voted $522,000, Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler advised Congress Tuesday.

The secretary told a Senate Appropriations Committee the President did not know of the plan to buy the two cars until he read about it in the newspapers.

He said Johnson would continue to use "the special protective armored vehicle reconstructed from an existing automobile by the Ford Motor Co. and turned over to the Secret Service, without cost, as well as another existing specially constructed protective vehicle assigned from another federal government source for this use."

MURDER PAIR HANGS; KILLED FAMILY OF FOUR

LANSING, Kan. (AP)—Richard Eugene Hickock and Perry Edward Smith, partners in crime, died on the gallows at the state prison early Wednesday for one of the bloodiest murders in Kansas criminal annals.

Hickock, 33, of Edgerton, Kan., died first, at 12:41 a.m.; Smith, 36, of Elko, Nev., died next, at 1:19.

"I don't have any hard feelings," Hickock told witnesses present for the executions. "You're sending me to a better place."

Smith was chewing gum when brought in from death row for his hanging. He smiled faintly and winked, but his last words were a complaint.

SCORES PENALTY

"I think it's a hell of a thing that a life has to be taken in this manner. I think capital punishment is legally and morally wrong," Smith spat out his gum before climbing the 13 steps to the platform.

It was almost 5½ years since their conviction of slaying Herbert Wesley Clutter, 48, a wheat farmer; his wife, teen-aged daughter and son at the Clutter home west of Garden City, Kan., the night of Nov. 14, 1959. The slayings climaxed a penny-ante robbery.

Hickock and Smith were arrested at Las Vegas, Nev., Dec. 28, 1959. They admitted the crime.

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor government defeated a censure motion in the House of Commons Tuesday night.

Lady Bird Visits Ike's Birthplace

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson paid a surprise visit Tuesday to the birthplace of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The First Lady made the 30-minute tour, seeking information that might be helpful in setting up President Johnson's birthplace as a public attraction. She was accompanied by two friends and four Secret Service men.

WALKER HOPES FOR RED MEETS

LONDON (AP) — Patrick Gordon Walker, Britain's special peace-keeping envoy, left for the Far East Wednesday still expressing hope that Communist leaders in Peking and Hanoi would change their minds and see him.

He said he was leaving time in his itinerary to visit both capitals and "I hope they will change their minds while I am there."

Communist China and North Viet Nam vetoed his visit.

The British are trying to promote what they call "the Cambodia formula," a conference on Cambodian neutrality at which the United States, Red China and other nations could discuss Viet Nam on the sidelines.

Red China, the Soviet Union and France accepted an earlier Cambodian proposal for an international conference to guarantee that kingdom's neutrality. The United States, South Viet Nam and Thailand have resisted the proposal.

North Viet Nam said today that it is impossible to solve the South Viet Nam question without the participation of the political arm of the Viet Cong rebels.

Truman Blames Leaders For World Minus Peace

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry S. Truman, 20 years after he became president, says he is bothered by conditions in a world without peace — and he places the blame on the world's leaders.

Truman spoke Tuesday night after receiving the 25th anniversary award of Freedom House. It cited him for decisive leadership which gave hope to a "battered world."

The bronze plaque was presented to Truman by Chief Justice Earl Warren who said of the former president: "He has furthered the cause of freedom not only in this country, but throughout the world."

1200 AT DINNER

The dinner was attended by 1,200 persons, including six former Truman Cabinet members.

In his acceptance speech, Truman, who will be 81 on May 8, said of the current global unrest and bloodshed:

"Of one thing we are certain. It is not the fault of any one person — or group of people. The fault lies with their leaders."

"We have reason to hope that the solution will come from the people, who will make themselves heard and defy those who would lead them to strife and aggression. This — and a strong

WELK STARTED ON LOCAL TV 15 YEARS AGO

By JAMES BACON

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Just 15 years ago, Sam Lutz, manager of Lawrence Welk, paid a local television station $200 to put the Welk band on the air.

Now Lawrence Welk, who has missed but one Saturday night on television since, grosses $4 million a year.

That puts Welk up among the titans of show business.

"And everybody who associates with Welk makes money," says Lutz. "Myron Floren and his accordion gross better than $100,000 a year on personal appearances. The Lennon sisters average around $350,000. Welk is a Hollywood oil well."

It wasn't that easy 15 years ago.

EARLY STRUGGLE

Lutz, who also was behind the Liberace boom, first met Welk during World War II.

"I was a special service officer in Chicago and Lawrence was playing at the Aragon Ballroom. Every time we put on a show for servicemen, Welk was the first to volunteer his band."

"I could see how popular he was in Chicago and the Midwest. After the war, I brought him out here and put him in another Aragon Ballroom at Santa Monica."

NATURAL FOR TV

"The crowds came. Television, in those days, was just getting going good. I figured Lawrence a natural for it."

"But it was tough selling him. Big bands were passe and I couldn't get Klaus Landsberg, head of Channel 5, on the phone."

"It was the top outfit in those days. So I gave orders to my secretary to put in a call to

Protest Changes In Customs Setup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Philadelphia, along with four other seacoast cities are objecting to a proposed streamlining of the Bureau of Customs that would downgrade their ports.

Philadelphia, Portland, Ore., Detroit, Mich., Pembina, N.D., and Baltimore, Md., protested at a hearing Tuesday before the House government operations subcommittee on reorganization plans.

The reorganization plan for the 175-year-old Customs Bureau goes into effect in May, 60 days after President Johnson presented it to Congress March 25, unless the House or Senate disapproves it. The plan includes establishing on Sept. 1 six regional offices at Boston, New York, Miami, New Orleans, Chicago and San Francisco.

SIGN AGREEMENT

KARACHI, Pakistan, (AP) — Pakistan and Communist China have signed an agreement to operate a shipping service between the two countries.

The agreement, signed in Peking April 11, was announced today by Commodore I.K. Mumtaz, director general of ports and shipping, on his return from the Red Chinese capital.

Landsberg every 15 minutes.

"Finally one day he got on the phone. He finally said he would try Lawrence for one show provided we paid the musicians — about $200."

PUBLIC RESPONSE

"The Welk band was only on the air 15 minutes before the KTLA switchboard started lighting up. Before the show was finished, Landsberg was ready to talk business."

"Soon a car sponsor bought the show and for five years, sales boomed in the Los Angeles area. That's when the big boys in Detroit got interested. Soon the same sponsor wanted Lawrence on national television. That was 10 years ago."

"He has only missed one Saturday night — the weekend of President Kennedy's assassination. With his records, personal appearances and television and other enterprises, Welk grosses $4 million."

"It was the best $200 bet I ever made."

United Nations — are our main hope to avert another catastrophe."

Freedom House is a non-partisan organization devoted to promoting principles of freedom. Previous winners of its award were Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sir Winston Churchill.

WOULD KINDLE GENIUS SPARK AMONG YOUNG

HARRISBURG (AP) — Dr. Wynn Laurence LePage, president of Philadelphia's Franklin Institute, is one who believes that scientific genius must be kindled in a person at a young age.

He voiced his views here Tuesday as the institute's mobile laboratory, "Expeditions in Science," went on exhibit for some 100 school children and educators, including officials of the Department of Public Instruction.

"We have one of these trucks," LePage said, "but we need 10, 15 or 20 of them, and we're determined to have them."

He indicated that the major problem facing the institute's mobile science laboratory program was money, but he expressed determination toward acquiring the necessary funds.

"It's our desire to make this facility more and more available across the state, not so that all should grow up to be scientists... but that the spark of scientific genius might be lighted in one of our young children. Experience has shown that if it's not lighted then, it will not be lighted."

The function of the roving laboratory is to bring the wonders of science to children, LePage said. In its first four months, it has performed scientific demonstrations for 50,000 public and parochial school pupils — free of charge.

The mobile laboratory was set in motion through a $40,000 gift from the Philco Fund, which the institute estimates will keep it going at least through 1965.

PLANES DUMP LEAFLETS OVER RED VIET NAM

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force planes dumped three million leaflets over North Viet Nam Wednesday, telling the population that American air strikes against Communist military targets "are aimed at stopping the aggression of Red China."

A U.S. military spokesman indicated that the leaflet drop was the first of a series. The leaflets were scattered over four highly populated areas in the southern part of North Viet Nam.

U.S. Air Force planes also bombed two radar installations in North Viet Nam.

The leaflets in effect call on the North Vietnamese people to overthrow their government.

The wordage is similar to that contained in Communist pamphlets aimed at U.S. involvement in South Viet Nam.

The day's bombing strikes were against the Hon Mett and Cua Le radar installations, about 130 miles south of Hanoi. Fifteen F105 fighter-bombers and 15 Air Force Phantom jet interceptors participated. Both targets had been hit in raids Tuesday.

TO STIMULATE BLAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Sun Shipbuilding Co. of Chester, Pa., has received a $2.39 million contract from the Defense Department to build a special device that will simulate the air shock of the detonation of a 20-kiloton nuclear bomb.

The device, consisting of a half-mile tube and four 16-inch naval guns to supply the blast effect, will be built at the Navy Weapons Laboratory, Dahlgren, Va., the Pentagon announced Tuesday.
